Summary:

With a craft course in food production and almost 8 years of hospitality work experience I would like to make a bright career in the industry. My key strengths include strong analytical and numerical skills, a keen focus on fine details and quality. I enjoy working in a team and always willing to learn things and take on new challenges.

Professional Experience:

Sep'10 - Till Date, Princess cruises, Santa Clarita, U.S.A. (www.princess.com)

Demi Chef De Partie(2nd in-charge of a section)

Princess is a Luxury cruise operator across the globe. As a team player in this role, I am responsible for checking of all dishes that is delivered to the guests from our section onboard the cruise, working together and helping Chef De Partie(in-charge of the section) and Sous Chef (the supervisor).

During my employment in Princess Cruises I have worked in different sections for preparing Sauce, Soup, Garde-Manger, Specialty Restaurant, Grill, Breakfast and Crew galley.

All the experience gained from my studies in terms of working with multicultural group has helped me to gain success in my career and getting promoted within different nationalities. This role has also enabled me to improve my communication and intrapersonal skills. I have always received good appraisal and reviews from my supervisor and colleagues after finishing every term from the cruise.
